Report on Seva Parv and Gandhi Jayanti Celebrations at Government Degree College (GDC) Marh

Government Degree College (GDC) Marh recently organized a series of events and activities to commemorate Seva Parv and Gandhi Jayanti, honoring the ideals of Mahatma Gandhi. From September 16, 2025, to October 2, 2025, the college witnessed a multitude of initiatives that promoted community service, social responsibility, and Gandhian values among students, faculty, and staff.

The celebrations began with a pledge-taking ceremony, where students and staff committed to supporting the Nasha Mukh Bharat and Bhrashtachar Mukh initiatives. This was followed by a Swachhata Abhiyan and campus beautification drive, which aimed to promote cleanliness and environmental stewardship. Various competitions, such as essay writing, slogan writing, and poetry recitation, were organized, allowing students to express their creativity and understanding of Gandhi's teachings.

A student rally was organized in Panchayat Dhateryal, promoting awareness about cleanliness, truth, and non-violence. The college also initiated an adult literacy program, where students taught basic reading and writing skills to adults. A debate and declamation competition, symposium, and group discussion provided platforms for students to engage in meaningful discussions on Gandhian principles and their application in modern society.

The celebrations also included a plantation drive, quiz competition, on-the-spot painting competition, digital storytelling competition, health awareness program, skit performance, and Clean and Green Awareness Drive. These events not only promoted environmental sustainability but also fostered a sense of community service and social responsibility among the participants.

Throughout the celebrations, students, faculty, and staff actively participated in various activities, demonstrating their commitment to upholding Gandhi's principles and contributing to the betterment of society. Under the guidance of Principal Prof. Ramneek Kaur, the events were successfully coordinated by various faculty members and NSS program officers.

The Seva Parv and Gandhi Jayanti celebrations at GDC Marh were a resounding success, promoting Gandhian ideals and values among the college community. The events served as a reminder of the importance of community service, social responsibility, and environmental sustainability, inspiring students to become responsible citizens and leaders of tomorrow.
